Twenty-second Sunday after Pentecost

8:00 AM

Children's Sabbath

If you are a guest, thank you for worshipping with us today. We invite you to take a moment to complete a visitor's card located in the back of the pew in front of you and place it in the offering plate when it is passed. We also invite you to sign your name in our guest book located in the back entrance of the sanctuary.

We welcome infants and children and all their wiggles & voices in our worship! For your comfort, we also have a children's corner in the back of the sanctuary where your child can relax and play and you can still participate in the worship experience. We also have nursery care downstairs during our 10:30 AM worship service. Please see a member of the welcoming team for assistance!

We pray God's blessing upon you. For today's service, we will be using the black hymnal.

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

JUBILATION ANTHEM

As a Little Child

by Martin

CALL TO WORSHIP:

Holt & Hayden Dallam

L: When the disciples tried to keep children from Jesus,

P: Jesus said, "Let the children come to me!"

L: When the disciples wanted to send hungry people away, saying there were too many to feed,

P: Jesus said we can feed them!

L: When a parent whose child was in terrible trouble came to Jesus,

P: Jesus said he would help.

L: When a woman in poverty gave what she could,

P: Jesus honored her generosity.

L: We gather in the name of that Jesus who welcomed the children, fed hungry people, helped children in trouble, and recognized the gifts of those in poverty.

P: On this Children's Sabbath day, let us follow him in word and in deed.

*Those for whom it is comfortable, please rise.

TIME OF CONFESSION

Layla & Cora Beyer

CALL TO CONFESSION

L: At school, at work, at home, and everywhere we often try hard to look like we're perfect, like we're doing it all right. But God knows that's not true—that we make mistakes, get it wrong, say or do something we shouldn't or wish we hadn't. God doesn't want us to pretend to be perfect. Instead, God invites us to confess our sin, trusting Jesus' promise that we are loved and forgiven, and make a new start with God and each other. Will you join now in the prayer of confession that's found in your bulletin?

PRAYER OF CONFESSION²

ALL: God of great and small, old and young, near and far, oh God of all, we confess that our love is not like yours. In the face of injustice, we often feel helpless or hopeless. We give in to despair about ending poverty, stopping gun violence, or uniting families that have been torn apart. Help us to work for justice, especially to end poverty. Help us to love kindness, working especially to end violence. Help us to walk humbly with you, opening our arms to all children as did the one we follow and in whose name we pray, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

L: Listen! I have something to say! God sent God's own child Jesus that we might know ourselves to be loved and forgiven children of God. Hear and believe the good news: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven. Thanks be to God.

ACT OF PRAISE
