Gather Round: Childhood Stories All Grown Up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego: The Fiery Furnace Sacrament of Holy Communion

This morning, as we worship our God, we also celebrate the Lord's Supper. Here at Mt. Zion UCC, all are invited to the table of grace.

If you are a guest, thank you for worshiping with us today. We invite you to take a moment to complete a visitor's card located in the back of the pew in front of you and place it in the offering plate when it is passed. We also invite you to sign your name in our guest book located in the back entrance of the sanctuary.

We welcome infants and children and all their wiggles & voices in our worship! For your comfort, we also have a children's corner in the back of the sanctuary where your child can relax and play and you can still participate in the worship experience. We also have nursery care downstairs during our 10:30 AM worship service. Please see a member of the welcoming team for assistance!

We pray God's blessing upon you. For today's service, we will be using the black hymnal.

TIME OF CONFESSION

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION²

ALL: We care, O God. We really do. But the world is so broken, sometimes we don't even know where to begin. Other times it's just easier to keep doing what we've always done. But we heard Your call to be different and to be the difference in this world. So reshape us when we get hung up on what we can't do rather than what we can do; when we turn down the chance to stand up for what is right; when our courage decides to take a vacation; when it's easier to be a part-time Christian rather than a full-time Christian. Reshape us so that Your kingdom comes and Your will is done here on earth. Amen.

There is speculation that this psalm paraphrase was written in 1527 when Martin Luther's friend was burned at the stake, or in 1529, when Lutheran German princes protested the revocation of their liberties. It has been translated into more than fifty languages.

Little is known about Katharina von Schlegel, the author of twenty-six hymns, except that she seems to have been a member of the duke's court at Cöthen, Germany. The tune is adapted from an orchestral work by Finland's great composer Jean Sibelius.

The musical score consists of two staves. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a time signature of 8/8. It features a melodic line with a long note on the first measure, followed by a series of eighth and quarter notes. The bottom staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, providing a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The lyrics are written between the two staves, aligned with the notes.
