

Scripture: 1 Thessalonians 5:12-24

Main Idea: In the upcoming year we are going to be looking at different parts of 1 Thess. 5:12-24. This is the end of a letter written by Paul. We often end letters with really important things. Paul ends this letter with instructions on how to be the church in the world, and the importance of letting each person be who God created them to be. Paul reminds people to

- Live in peace
- Let God's children be themselves and do their own good things
- Be ready and focused on praising God
- Pursue the good and hold onto it
- Rejoice
- Pray
- Give Thanks

We still need these words today!

Activity:

On the next page you've been given a scroll of your own to put what you believe is important. Draw pictures or write words about what you wish the church knew or how you wish the church would be.
