

Bible Story: Luke 3:15-17, 21-22

Read: Today in our Bible reading we hear about John the Baptist baptizing people, and Jesus' Baptism. Before Jesus was Baptized people knew that Baptisms could be healing but didn't quite know what the practice meant. It was all a little fuzzy! In Jesus' baptism, the heavens open and a voice calls out from on high naming Jesus as God's son and beloved. When we are Baptized following Jesus' ways, we know that we participate in this practice, or Sacrament, because it is a sign that we are God's beloved children too. Just like things were fuzzy and unclear for those who were Baptized before Jesus' coming—you have some fuzzy/unclear puzzles to remind you of the story of Jesus' Baptism and the importance of our own Baptisms in Jesus' name.
