

Bible Story: Luke 4:1-13

Main Idea: In life there are many things that may tempt us and many times we might feel completely alone. Jesus was tempted and lonely when he spent 40 days in the desert following his Baptism. While it can be easy to feel lost and weak, remembering that God is with us through everything in our life helps give us strength for anything ahead of us. When we hold fast to God, we are filled with God's presence even when we feel all alone. God's presence in our life makes a big difference.
